revolutionized their employee expense
management process

The Problem

When will I get reimbursed?

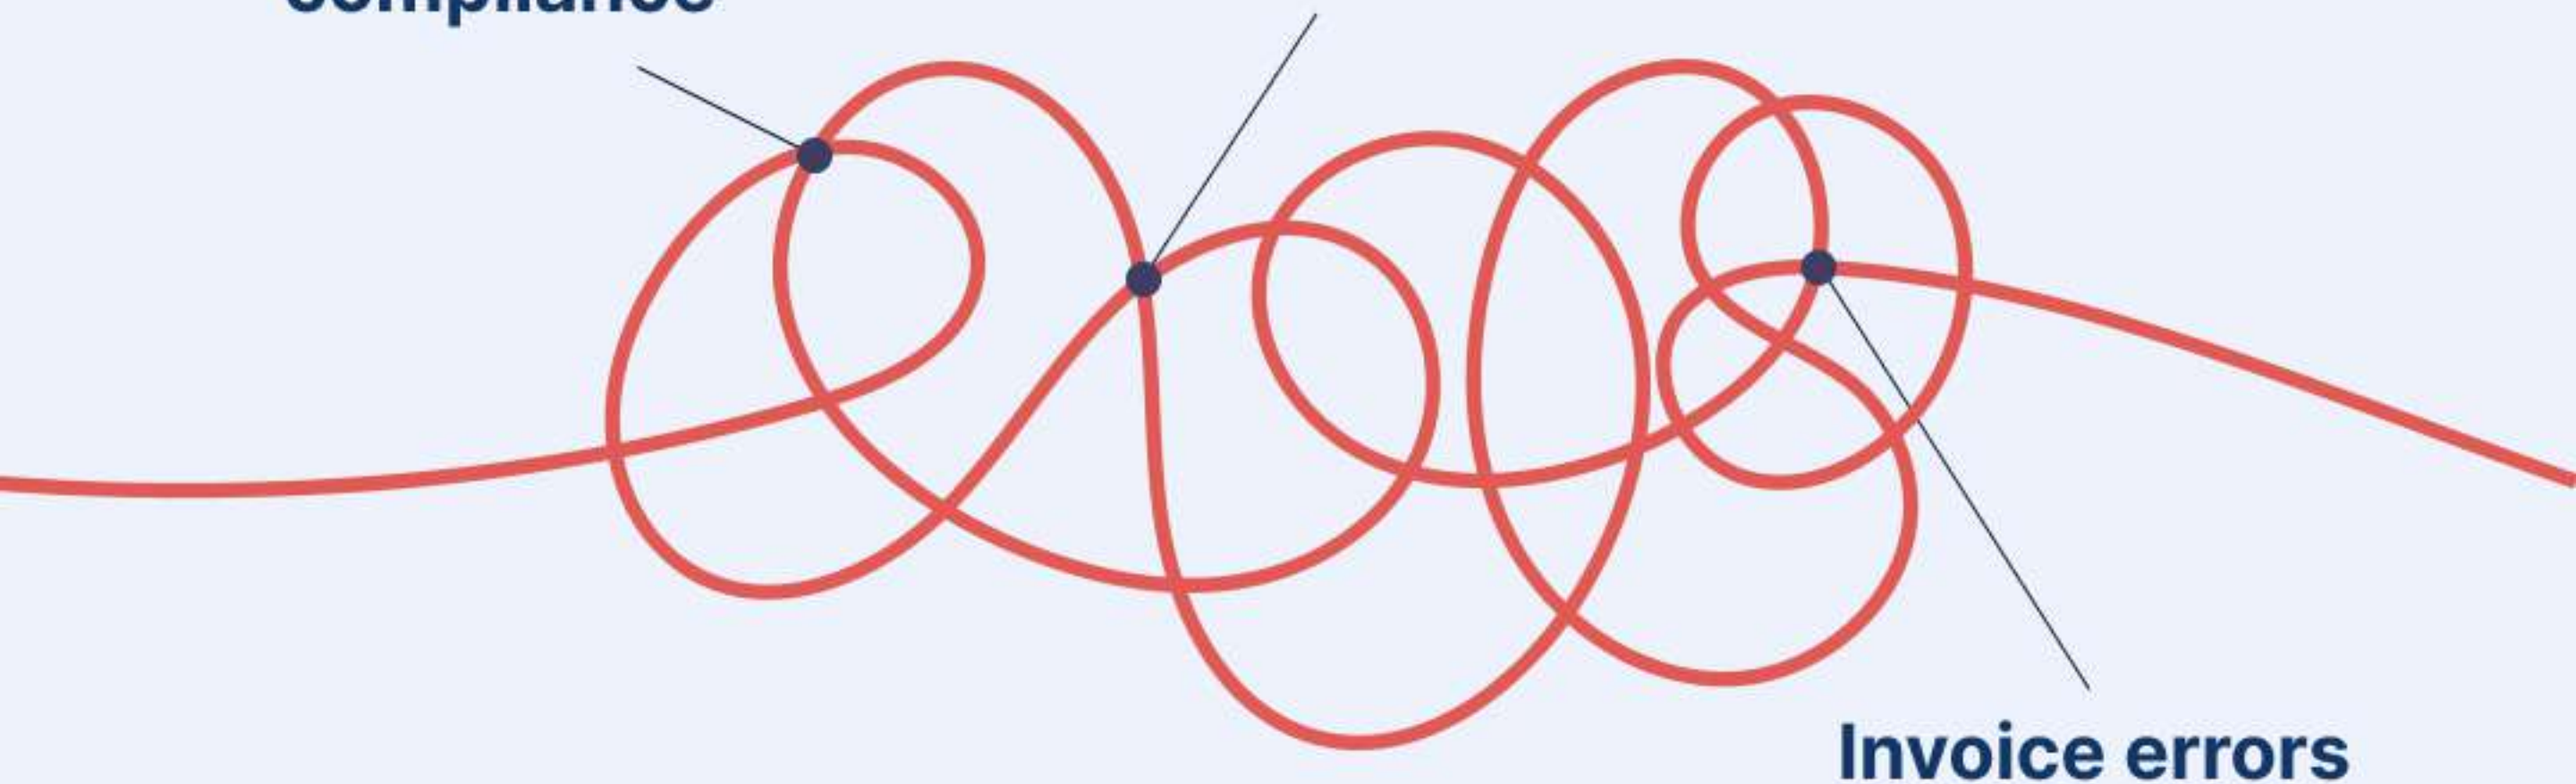

It might take about 60 days.

Sula was facing several challenges in their expense management process. A 60-day reimbursement cycle was a time sink that led to poor employee morale.

The Process

Gaps in policy compliance

Manual policy checks led to human errors

Sula wanted a seamless, paperless and automated expense management solution.

They wanted to reduce the time and effort invested by employees on expense filing.

The Solution

I have filed the expenses

Reimbursement is on the way

Sula leveraged Happay's unique features to revolutionise their expense systems. This reduced the reimbursement cycle to just 10 days.

The Change

Deviation workflow

100% paperless

Happy employees

Sula adopted Happay's end-to-end expense management software, a solution that allowed them to set up complex deviation workflows, auto-created expenses and more. This allowed the employees to travel and spend worry-free.

The Big 3 Effect

01

Automated compliance with 200+ policies

Real-time visibility on expense approvals

Auto-creation of expense claims

I am extremely proud of our expense management process. From filing expenses to getting approvals - everything happens on a single mobile platform. There is no need for paper invoices. Reimbursements are quick. We are able to drive strong policy compliance by automating policy-checks and getting real-time spend analytics.
