

Manual Expense Management Impacts Corporate Productivity

Automate T&E management system to boost the overall corporate productivity.

The State of T&E Expense Management 2018 in India

95% of Indian companies have T&E policy

But...

65% check for policy compliance Manually

On an average T&E makes up 5% or more of the Operational Expenditure In a typical India company (Company size: Rs 500-5000+ crore)

Following the Paper Trail

65%

companies still check vouchers manually

Reliant on Outdated Software

50%

companies use accounting software to manage T&E

Capturing Expenses Manually

Approvals are time consuming

42%

companies require vouchers to go from one approver to the next

Process is Opaque

54%

companies require employees to follow up personally with line managers and departments to get their vouchers approved

No real time insights or data analytics

55%

companies require multiple people and take a long time to generate historical data

Read the full benchmark report →